Join us for a PRSA Detroit virtual “Meet the Media” event with Kevin Hardy, new managing editor of The Detroit News, in his first event since taking on his new role. Kevin, who began his career at The News 15 years ago as an intern, has held a number of editing roles overseeing coverage of the city of Detroit, Southeast Michigan and breaking news since 2009. He will share his vision for The Detroit News, insight on managing a newsroom in the COVID-19 era and insight on what data tells us about news consumption in the modern age. The meeting will include a Q & A, so bring your questions!
